

South Koreans Hold N. Front, Take Kigye; Republicans Pounce on 'Gag' of MacArthur

Democrats Insist Boss Is Truman

Incident Is Certain to Be One of Leading Issues of Campaign in Fall Election

Asks Clear Picture

Senator Morse Calls for Armed Services Men to Investigate

Washington, Aug. 29 (AP)—Republicans hoisted as a congressional campaign issue today what they called a presidential "gag" order against Gen. Douglas MacArthur's views on Formosa.

Accepting this as inevitable, Senator Lucas of Illinois, the Democratic leader, told reporters that while he thinks MacArthur is doing "a wonderful job" as the Pacific military commander "it is my understanding that the President is the commander-in-chief and makes the policies."

While congressional reaction generally followed party lines, some Democrats backed MacArthur and at least one Republican supported Mr. Truman.

The President canceled a MacArthur message to a Chicago Veterans meeting—obviously because the general's views could be interpreted as calling for permanent American defense of the island, now in the hands of the Chinese Nationalists.

This went beyond the administration policy to neutralize the island from Communist attack during the Korean fighting and to leave its eventual disposition to international action, probably through the United Nations.

The MacArthur statement, which has been widely distributed in advance of its scheduled and then canceled reading at Chicago yesterday, soon became public.

Effect Uncertain
It was obvious that the White House viewed the incident with considerable concern. Newsmen there were briefed for nearly an hour on the sequence of events and on U. S. policy toward Formosa.

What effect the incident would have on (a) this country's prestige abroad and (b) MacArthur's future remained to be seen.

So far as MacArthur is concerned, the White House said Mr. Truman considers the matter closed. MacArthur remained silent.

What was certain was that the whole incident would be threshed over at length in the coming political campaign this fall.

Republican reaction to the Presidential order took several forms.

Senator Morse (R-Ore.) called for an investigation by the Armed Services Committee of both houses. He said they should find out what's being done to bolster defenses of Formosa which the President has ordered the Seventh Fleet to protect from attack.

Wants Clear Statement
In an interview Morse called for a clear statement from the administration as to exactly what its program in the Pacific is going to be.

Senator Brewster of Maine, who heads the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, predicted to

Tower Nears Completion

The new tank erected by the local water department on Florence street near Lincoln street will be operating next month, John J. Byrne, superintendent of the department, said today. The tank costs $2,500 and will better the water pressure in the higher parts of the Third and Eighth Wards. Construction is expected to be completed this week and it will be painted as soon as finished. The section it will supply is known as the "East Chester-West Chester area." (Freeman Photo)

Schools Open Next Tuesday; Schedule Is Announced

Rules and Regulations Are Given Out by Superintendent A. J. Laidlaw

Kingston city public schools will re-open Tuesday morning, September 5, after the summer recess. Rules and regulations governing registration and attendance at kindergarten, elementary and high school have been prepared by Superintendent of Schools Arthur J. Laidlaw as well as the hours of opening of schools on September 5. Elementary schools will open at 8:45 a. m. while the M. S. and high school will open at 8:30 a. m.

The following regulations governing the opening of the public schools were released today by Superintendent Laidlaw:

All public elementary schools in the city of Kingston will open on Tuesday morning, September 5, at 8:45 a. m. All schools will be in session at that time.

Kindergartens are being conducted in all elementary schools except School No. 1. Before children enter a first grade they should have had a year's kindergarten training.

For admission to a kindergarten the child must reach the age of four years, eight months, on or before September 8, 1950. No exception to this Board of Education whether there shall be an excess profits levy—seems almost certain there will be—but how and when it shall be applied.

Mr. Truman told congressional leaders at a White House conference yesterday he favors taking profits out of war but he does not favor tacking an excess profits levy on corporations to the "quickie" tax boosting bill.

Without an excess profits tax, the measure would add about $2,700,000 annually to individual income taxes, another

Trained Men Are Needed by U.S. in Korea

Tokyo, Aug. 29 (AP)—Some high-rank officers, appalled by the shortcomings of green U. S. troops in the early Korean fighting, say the army should drastically revise its recruiting and training program.

The army should stress recruitment of fighting men who are willing to die for their country if necessary, the officers argue, and forget about bland appeals to travel-hungry, security and pension-conscious youngsters.

The officers cannot be named because they did not speak for publication. They aired their views freely, however, on the Korean battlefield.

They also suggested changes in the concepts of training to prepare U. S. troops to fight in rugged country as well as along fine, wide roadways.

One high officer said his men "were enticed into the service by advertisements emphasizing the chance to travel, learn a trade, to be fed and secure, and be pensioned while still young." He added:

"They were rudely jolted when they felt the rocks of Korea instead of the tatami (floor matting) of Japan."

Another officer said U. S. Army equipment was not designed for rugged, primitive country such as Korea.

"Here we have for the most part a single rocky road between the front lines and the rear," he commented, pointing out that one knocked out or broken down vehicle could block a vital supply road for hours.

A brigadier general noted that Red Koreans roamed the ridges like Indians, hitting U. S. troops on all sides like sandflies. But Americans were road-bound.

The general also said every North Korean was a fighting man trained to the use of weapons while army specialists such as cooks, orderlies and clerks had not touched a weapon for years.

"Our men," he said, "should be combat soldiers first and specialists second."

Tank Production

Washington, Aug. 29 (AP)—Representative Vinson (D-Ga.) said today President Truman has approved an expanded tank production program, estimated to cost about $500,000,000.

The chief point in the sparsely detailed announcement was that report forms rather than stamps or coupons will be used for collecting taxes under the new social security act signed by President Truman yesterday.

The principal groups added by the new act and the collection methods announced by Revenue Commissioner George J. Schoeneman are:

1. Household workers: A simple form is being prepared for housewives and other employers of regular domestic workers (maids, cooks, etc.) to file every three months.

The first return will be due April 30, 1951. Schoeneman said further details will be provided before January 1. He said families having business employees will be allowed to add their household workers to their regular returns for the business workers.

2. Farm workers: Since only regularly employed farm workers are covered by the new act, the reporting forms (Form 941) used by businessmen will apply to farm workers subject to the new act, Schoeneman said. The first return for farm workers also will be due April 30, 1951.

3. Self-employed persons: A special social security tax on self-employed persons will be collected annually through the regular income tax returns, Schoeneman said. The first payment by these individuals will be due March 15, 1952.

Treasury Receipts

Washington, Aug. 29 (AP)—The position of the treasury, August 25. Net budget receipts $36,756,497.55. Budget expenditures $70,762,805.04. Cash balance $5,310,488,245.35. Lose Formosa, War Sure

MacArthur Stresses Importance of Pacific Island Defense Line in Letter to Veterans of Foreign Wars

Chicago, Aug. 28 (AP)—Gen. MacArthur said today "we may have peace" by holding a Pacific island defense line—including Formosa—but "lose it and war is inevitable."

MacArthur gave great military importance to Formosa, last major stronghold of Chinese Nationalist forces, in a cabled message to the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The United States has no armed forces on Formosa, but the U. S. Seventh Fleet has been patrolling the Formosa Strait to prevent an often-threatened attack by Chinese Communists.

MacArthur said that the President's June 27th order to carry out this patrol "marked for the Far East the local and turning point in this area's struggle for freedom. It swept aside in one great monumental stroke, all of the hypocrisy and the sophistry which has confused and deluded so many people distant from the actual scene."

The commander in chief of the United Nations forces fighting in Korea described a "natural" defense line of islands in the Pacific.

From this line, MacArthur said, "we can dominate with air power every Asiatic port from Vladivostok to Singapore."

He indicated Formosa was a key spot in this defense line and said "historically, Formosa has been used as a springboard for military aggression directed against areas to the south."

Identically Located
MacArthur said Formosa, if held by the enemy, "could be compared to an unsinkable aircraft carrier and submarine tender ideally located."

He expressed his military views in a cable to the V.F.W., meeting in its 51st National Encampment. The message was read by Clyde A. Lewis, V.F.W. commander in chief.

The general declared that should Formosa fall, it "would constitute an enemy salient in the very center of this defensive perimeter."

"Its military potential would again be fully exploited as the means to breach and neutralize our western Pacific defense system and mount a war of conquest against the free nations of the Pacific basin."

The general said he was voicing his views on Formosa "in view of misconceptions currently being voiced concerning the relationship of Formosa to our strategic potential in the Pacific."

Good While We Hold It
He said the last war shifted our strategic frontier "to embrace the entire Pacific ocean which has

Lewis Declares Miners Won't Be Bound by No-Strike Pledge

Restrict All Pledges to Your Outfit, Miners' Boss Tells Green

Washington, Aug. 22 (AP)—John Lewis advised A.F.L. President William Green today that his coal miners won't be bound by any A.F.L.-inspired no-strike pledge.

The government has not asked labor groups to forego strikes during the Korean fighting and defense-building period ahead, but Green and some top C.I.O. officers have indicated that such a pledge would be given if it was asked.

The United Mine Workers made public a sarcastically worded memorandum from Lewis to Green.

Lewis said the newspapers reported Green "as plodding about the country seeking someone to whom you can give a 'no strike pledge'."

Lewis commented: "Restrict your pledges to your own outfit. We do our own no striking."

He also told Green: "I am sure that you will pardon me when I suggest that the mine workers are not yet ready for you to sell them down the river."

The mine workers are now an independent union, but at various times in the past have been affiliated with the C.I.O. and the A.F.L.

Lewis pulled them out of the A.F.L. in December, 1947.

During World War 2, the A.F.L. and C.I.O. gave a no strike pledge to President Roosevelt in exchange for the creation of a War Labor Board to handle labor disputes.

Lewis ignored the board as much as possible and his miners struck several times.

Fireman H. H. Richter May Retire Tonight

The Board of Fire Commissioners in regular session tonight may consider the application for retirement filed earlier this year by Fireman Harry H. Richter.

The fireman, who has been at the Wiltwyck station for some time was appointed to the department November 1, 1919.

If retirement is granted the board is expected to make an appointment from an eligible list of three. The local civil service board said it would not divulge the list until after action by the fire commissioners. The latter made no specific announcement that they would act on Richter's application tonight, but it was learned unofficially that such action is possible at the session.

Pay Town Taxes, Says Groves, to Cut Penalty

Collectors in the various towns of the county will turn in their tax rolls next week and a penalty will be added on delinquents, County Treasurer John T. Groves announced today.

All those who have not paid their current town taxes are advised to do so to avoid the penalty at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from last Feb. 1 to date of payment besides the usual five per cent collection fee after the tax rolls are filed with the county treasurer.

Taxpayers should pay their taxes to the town collector, if possible, to avoid this extra expense, the county treasurer said.

Truman Prepares Report To Nation on Home Front

By JOHN CHADWICK

Washington, Aug. 29 (AP)—President Truman was reported today to be preparing a talk to the nation—possibly late this week—in which he will outline what belt-tightening may be necessary because of the war in Korea.

White House sources who could not be named told a reporting that considerable work has already been done on the draft of such a talk.

It would be Mr. Truman's first report to the nation since his July 19 radio address spelling out a partial mobilization program to deal with the Korean fighting.

These officials said no definite time had been set. One reason was reported to be that Congress has not yet acted upon the President's request for legislation which would enable him to impose limited controls on the domestic economy.

Headquarters Reports Reds Lose Chances of End-Run to the Port of Pusan

Planes Hit Stores

Warning Is Given About Possible Breakthrough in East

Tokyo, Aug. 20 (AP)—A Red Korean force whipped behind Allied lines at Pohang today, cutting the road to Yongchon near the eastern anchor of the 120-mile Korean battlefield.

A spokesman at General MacArthur's headquarters said, however, the Reds had lost all chance of a relatively safe end-run to Pusan, the main Allied seaport on the southeastern tip of the peninsula.

Red forces of 40,000 to 60,000 men still were building up for a big push against the Allies.

A U. S. 8th Army communique announced the Communist infiltration and roadblock three miles southwest of Pohang by a Red force of undetermined numbers.

But a spokesman for the South Korean Capital Division had taken Kigye, nine miles northwest of Pohang.

Near the central sector, the South Korean Sixth Division was attacked at 2:40 p. m. Tuesday (11:40 p. m. E.S.T. Monday) by elements of 20,000 North Korean troops four miles south of Uihung, 22 miles north of the central front hub city of Taegu.

Regain Positions
On the southern flank before Massan a U. S. 25th Infantry Division regiment counterattacked at noon Tuesday and regained positions in the Sobuk hills which had been lost Tuesday morning.

Noting a bulging Red mass on the central front above Taegu, the spokesman said allied ability to move reinforcements quickly to any threatened point of the box-shaped defense perimeter, plus added troops including British Infantrymen who arrived Tuesday, removed all chances of the Reds reaching Pusan in a quick thrust.

To cripple Red efforts at a buildup for the anticipated big drive, B-29s dropped 230 tons on enemy rail yards at Chongjin, Communist supply center 80 miles from Soviet Siberia. Light bombers plastered supply lines on the west coast from Kyompo in the north to Suchon in the south.

Warns of Dangers
While the situation appeared improved, the MacArthur spokesman warned of the dangers of a breakthrough still existing in the east.

Far to the south the wall of bagpipes sounded as 1,500 British Infantrymen went ashore from the carrier Uniform and the cruiser Ceylon from Hong Kong.

They were the first of a large group of ground forces officially promised by other members of the

Two Yanks Were 18 Days in Red Hills, Lived on Prayers

Mass Front, Korea, Aug. 29 (AP)—Two American artillerymen were cut off and hid in the Red Hills for 18 days. They said they spent their time reading the Bible and praying to the Lord. They reached American lines late today.

They are Sgt. Charles Umi of Honolulu and Cpl. Lester L. Drake, Toronto, Kan., both of the 85th Field Artillery Battalion. Weak and filthy, they were rushed to a hospital by ambulance after telling one of the great adventure stories of the Korean war.

Umi and Drake were beside their guns August 11 when a North Korean slipped in and ambushed the position. He threw a grenade at Umi. It failed to explode.

While their guns and vehicles flamed up around them from Communist incendiary grenades, the two artillerymen crawled through the triumphant, shouting Red Koreans up to the hills. That was at Pangam—which now is six miles behind Communist lines.

"Each day seemed a year," said Drake. "We hid in the hills during the day, sleeping and reading the New Testament Umi hid in his pocket and praying to the Lord to guide us."

"We had no food. We dug turnips out of the fields with our own hands, and stole cucumbers," Umi chipped in. "A few times we found 'C' ration cans Americans had thrown away when they were up here. Sometimes the little can of jam had not been eaten."

Once they hid in a house. Someone must have seen them enter. Communists came up and fired a machinegun into it. Neither was hit.

The cocksure Communists were so certain everyone in the old board house had been killed they did not search it.

"They were all around us," said Drake. "Once a whole regiment walked by on a road 25 feet from where we were hiding. Each night we moved back toward the American lines a little, going slowly. We were not taking any chances by trying to make it all at once. We hit the seacoast and followed that."

"We each had a carbine but did not use them or our hiding places would have showed up," Drake said. "Communists had lots of artillery and supplies around. We didn't see any tanks though."

The pair saw some Americans on the skyline today and shouted. The Americans are part of Hawaii's Fifth Regimental combat team. The doughboys rushed them back to regimental headquarters.

Both men gobbled food, took showers and said they felt weak but pretty good.

Both had been given up either as dead or enemy prisoners. "Tell the folks at home we are okay and not to worry," Umi said. "That's right. Tell them we are okay," Drake added.

Umi is a big Japanese-American. Drake is a slight, slender youth whose face was gaunt from hunger.

State Social Welfare To Drop 1,800 Cases

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 29 (AP)—The State Social Welfare Department will drop 1,800 cases from public assistance rolls and cut payments to 13,000 others on Oct. 1, because of increased federal social security benefits.

A liberalized social security bill was signed yesterday by President Truman.

The welfare department said it was unable to estimate the savings that would result to state and local public assistance units.

The 1,800 cases will be transferred to the federal old-age and survivors insurance rolls. These will include about 1,200 elderly persons and 200 dependent children.

They will be removed from the state-aided public assistance rolls because the new social security payments will equal or exceed their total present benefits.

Local Death Record

General Foods Cuts Jean Muir From Video Show

New York, Aug. 29 (AP)—General Foods Corporation dropped actress Jean Muir from its N.B.C. television version of "The Aldrich Family" yesterday after she was attacked by several anti-Communist groups.

The company said it was not passing judgment on the merits of the protests against her, but was taking action because she had become a "controversial personality" who might have a bad effect on the company's advertising.

Miss Muir, formerly a movie actress, had been scheduled to play Mother Aldrich in the video show for 18 weeks this fall. Her successor has not yet been announced.

"It seems unbelievable that an actress can have such a setback to her livelihood and career based on nothing more than unsubstantiated accusations made over the telephone and by telegram," she said in a statement afterwards.

General Foods Corporation itself makes clear in its statement that they have not gone into the truth of the charges and in no way support them or believe them true.

"That their action was based on threats and pressure which they thought might possibly be harmful to the sale of their products is further proved by the fact that I am being paid in full for my 18-week contract, which could have been legally cancelled if the charges were true."

Denies Red Tie
Miss Muir said she never had been associated with the Communist party, and said she regards it as "one of the most vicious influences in the world today."

One of the protests against her came from the Joint Committee Against Communism in New York, whose coordinator, Rabbi Benjamin Schultz, said it is made up of state commanders of six veterans and patriotic groups and officials of civic groups.

Rabbi Schultz said one of the reasons was the appearance of Miss Muir's name on the letterhead of Communism in New York, Women, a group described as "subversive and Communist" by the Attorney General.

Miss Muir said she had belonged for about six months "three to five years ago" but resigned because she did not approve of the group's policy.

The American Civil Liberties Union said it would investigate the case to see if there was an organized boycott of some radio and television actors.

Chowhound Finds Berth
Cumberland, Md. (AP)—Private Striker, 7-month-old bulldog mascot of the Cumberland Marine reserve, looked down in the mouth when his unit shipped out and left him behind. But he perked up again when Navy reservists adopted him, outfitted him with a go's cap and put him in training. The Navy reservists say ex-Private Striker seems quite adjusted now to his new unit and new rating—Chowhound.

Holds Luckenbach Ship Fault for Crash
San Francisco, Aug. 29 (AP)—The government charges the Luckenbach steamship with responsibility for the sinking of the navy hospital ship Benevolence. It asked $14,000,000 damages.

A suit filed in Federal District Court also asked seizure of the freighter Mary Luckenbach which collided with the Benevolence Friday in dense fog off San Francisco's Golden Gate.

Benevolence casualties were 18 dead and 13 missing, with 482 saved. The freighter's bow damaged, had no casualties.

The government asks $3,500,000 for loss of the hospital ship and $10,500,000 for hospital equipment aboard.

It charges the freighter was operated negligently.

Luckenbach's only comment came from attorney Joseph Gary, who said the action "will be resisted by Luckenbach, you can bet on that."

The line's main office is in New York.

Ghost of Guam Is Bound for Sea Now

Portland, Ore., Aug. 29 (AP)—The Yankee sailor who lived like Robinson Crusoe while surviving on Japanese occupied Guam in World War 2 has gone back to the fleet.

Burly George Ray Tweed, now 48 and a navy veteran of 22 years, has been recalled to active duty after two years as a stateside landlubber. He returns as chief electronics technician.

Eventually Tweed may be assigned to the Far Western Pacific, where he once was known as the "Ghost of Guam." He was then a wreath-like island fugitive from a feared enemy.

When the Japanese overwhelped that tiny American force on Guam in the months after Pearl Harbor, Tweed eluded capture. He was the only American to survive there until the Stars and Stripes were again hoisted over the island.

With the aid of natives, he managed to stay alive for 33 months. He slept in caves and moved his hideout when enemy patrols came too close to his jungle trails. Four years ago, Tweed rewarded one of the natives. He sent a new automobile to Antonio Artero, who had fed him for more than a year while he hid from the Japanese.

A few days prior to the American recapture of Guam, Tweed was snatched from the island in a daring rescue. He was able to give the U. S. fleet vital information about enemy defenses, later was awarded the Legion of Merit and promoted to rank of Lieutenant.

He retired to civilian life two years ago, purchased a bowling alley in the southern Oregon city of Grants Pass and lived there with his wife and two young children. Six weeks ago, Sailor Tweed tied himself closer to the landlubbers' life—or so he thought. He bought a ten acre farm.

Then came Uncle Sam's orders—and yesterday Tweed reported here for examination and today is in Seattle for fleet assignment.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Aug. 29 (AP)—A series of good healthy price increases were posted today in the stock market without generating much business.

Despite the upswing, however, the volume of trading remained modest, much as it did yesterday when there was a bulge in prices.

Steels and motors started off the forward swing and the others joined. Rails were in a good position with gains all the way up to the $3.50 added, at one time by Nickel Plate.

There also was considerable scattered strength, like the two points put on by American Woolen. Substantial price increases in fabrics are being predicted as a result of the sharp jump in Australian wool prices at the opening of the auctions there.

The radio-television section was up from a few cents to around a dollar a share after yesterday's losses. Aircraft continued to advance today as did many of the chemicals. Oils were higher by fractions.

Stocks moving upward included Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Southern Railway, T. W. A., U. S. Gypsum, General Electric, Du Pont, Dow Chemical, Anaconda Copper, American Telephone, U. S. Steel, Youngstown Sheet & Tube, General Motors, Chrysler, Goodrich, Douglas Aircraft, Lockheed, Admiral Corp., Zenith, and Philco.

Quotations

Republicans . . .

A reporter that most Republicans will back MacArthur's contention that Formosa must be kept out of hostile hands as a key link in the island chain which the general said could form "an invincible defense against aggression."

The Republican National Committee laid the groundwork for such a drive by declaring in a campaign document devoted to Far Eastern policies that "Korea and Formosa must be added to China as instances where the boomerang of Far Eastern policy has met itself coming back."

Senator McCarran (D-Nev.), said he thinks every American ought to know MacArthur's views. "There is a man who is talking about it," McCarran said. "He has the confidence of the American people and they should know his views fully."

Written General

President Truman today sent Gen. Douglas MacArthur a statement of American policy on Formosa, and also a commendation of the general's direction of the Korean campaign.

The statement appeared to have a twofold purpose although there was no official comment.

1. To clarify MacArthur's own understanding of the whole situation and give him an implied reminder not to get out of step again.

2. To ease the sting of the incident to the general and also help maintain MacArthur's prestige in the Far East.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross gave out Mr. Truman's message without comment and refused to answer questions as to why Mr. Truman sent it.

Text of Letter

The text of Mr. Truman's letter:

"I am sending you for your information the text of a letter which I sent to Ambassador Austin dated August 27. I am sure that when you examine this letter and the letter which Ambassador Austin addressed to Trygve Lie on August 25 (a copy of which I am told was sent your headquarters that night), you will understand why my action of the 26th in directing the withdrawal of your message to the Veterans of Foreign Wars was necessary."

"General Collins and Admiral Sherman have given me a comprehensive report of their conversations with you and on their visit to the United Nations forces now fighting under your command in Korea. Their reports were most satisfactory and highly gratifying to me."

The letters Mr. Truman enclosed were those officially stating American policy toward Formosa as communicated by Austin to Lie, the Secretary General of the United Nations.

Gen. J. Lawton Collins, army chief of staff, and Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, chief of naval operations, recently returned from a visit to Tokyo and Korea.

American officials are watching with deep concern the reaction abroad to the conflict of views between the President and MacArthur on Formosa.

Supervisors Will Meet Wednesday

An important meeting of the board of supervisors has been called for Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Matters pertaining to civilian defense as well as routine business will come before the board. Action may also be taken under a new state law which permits, in a county where rabies is prevalent, the appointment of an exterminator of foxes with the cost being born jointly by the county and state.

South Koreans

United Nations. They disembarked in jungle greens, with part of their own battle equipment and, as a Scottish officer said "ready to go."

The British force was composed of units of the famed Argyll and Sutherland and Middlesex Regiments. They came especially trained for the type of war raging in Korea—mountain fighting.

American naval and ground artillery concentrated around Pohang pounded the North Korean troops. A Naval spokesman said marine fighter pilots added the weight of their bombs and rockets to the battle.

The Red forces described by American intelligence as "security regiments" were reinforcing the North Korean units attacking Pohang. They were estimated at 6,000 men. An intelligence officer said their assignment normally is to guard rearward areas.

Fighting Rages

Fighting raged along the whole northern face of the defense wall. The spokesman said the ground there, particularly south of Uihung, 22 miles north of Taegu, offers the easiest avenue for a breakthrough. Wider valleys than the Kumhwa "bowling alley," where the Reds were defeated last week, lead south toward Taegu.

The Reds hit one South Korean division with a powerful attack Monday and drove forward 2½ miles near the village of Kwabon. The Red attack was halted Tuesday. But American intelligence reported signs of reinforcements for the Communists in the rear. Two Communist divisions—the 13th and 15th—are not far away. The officer said they could be quickly brought into action in the event of a breakthrough.

The spokesman said he believed the focus of the expected offensive would be definitely determined as soon as the crack North Korean Second Division, now retreating in the rear, is returned to the battlefield.

Traffic moved from Red back areas to both these sectors Tuesday. A heavy movement of pedestrians, likely bearing disassembled guns and war supplies, headed toward the front.

Stolen Automobile Found Near Connelly

An automobile reported stolen from Poughkeepsie last Wednesday was found abandoned near Connelly Monday evening.

Mrs. George Soehnlein informed the sheriff's office at 5:20 p. m. Monday that the automobile had been left near her property overnight. Sheriff's men traced the vehicle through its registration to Mrs. Theodore Smith of Millbrook, who said it had been stolen from Poughkeepsie on Wednesday. The automobile will be turned over to Mrs. Smith here today.

Inflation in Israel

Tel Aviv, Israel, Aug. 29 (AP)—An Israeli government S-O-S today brought an unofficial American mission flying here to help stop a runaway inflation. While crowds stormed stores in panic buying and banks for heavy withdrawals, black marketers did a thriving gouging. Men's suits, without ration coupons, are selling for as much as $280 each. Shoes bring $56 a pair. A package of American cigarettes, $1.04. Soap is 70 cents a bar on the "free" market. The almost hysterical rush to convert cash into goods apparently is due, for one thing, to a public fear that the government is about to extend its rationing decrees.

Washington, Aug. 29 (AP)—The C.I.O. executive board voted 41 to 2 today to oust Harry Bridges and his West Coast Longshoremen's Union from the C.I.O. on charges of following the Communist Party line. The dissenting votes were cast by J. W. Robertson, vice president of Bridges' union, and Hugh Bryson, president of the marine cooks and stewards who faces the same certain ouster before nightfall.

The women of Wallkill will show the men how to play softball tonight. As a climax to the close of the softball schedule for the summer, women from the east side of the railroad tracks coached by Bucky Freer and Fred Richter will play the west side women coached by Howard Terwilliger and Peter Sowa. Game time will be 6:30 and all proceeds will go to the recreation fund which has been making possible the swimming and playground program for the youngsters of the community.

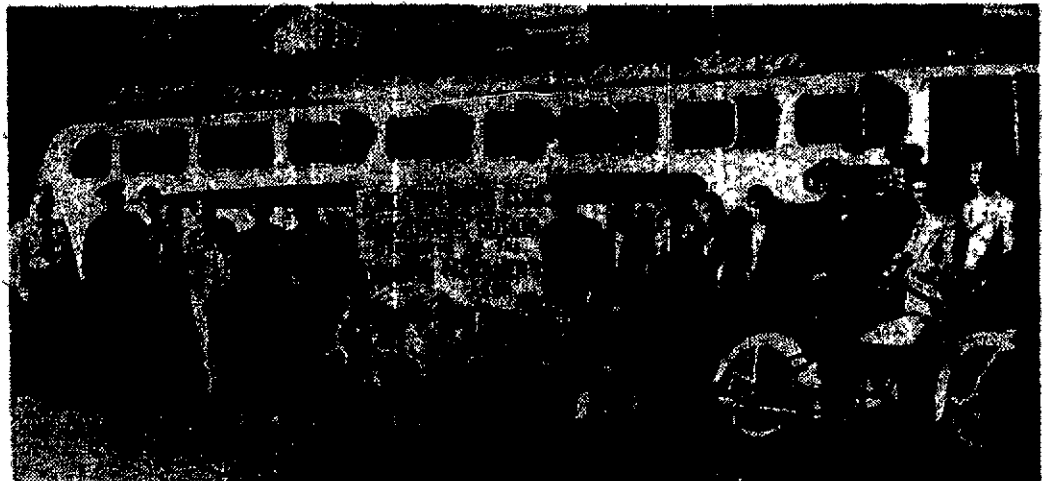

Another benefit softball game for the injured players, Bucky Harris will be played on the school field at 6:30 Tuesday night. The Crossroads team will meet Poppy's Playboys. This promises to be an exciting game inasmuch as the Crossroads and Poppy's are staunch rivals having been in a triple tie with the Prison for the Wallkill Softball Championship last week. The Crossroads eliminated the Prison and then took on Poppy's Playboys. The game was finally called on account of darkness with a 3-3 tie. The following night they were all out again and this game also was called for darkness but with a 4-4 tie.

The Wallkill Chamber of Commerce picnic for the entire community was held Monday night with great results. The total attendance this year was 250 making a gain of 30 for the crowd of last year. Folks brought covered dishes and corn on the cob, watermelon, coffee, and soda was supplied by the Chamber. Bill Amthor's orchestra provided the entertainment. Ben Krelton the Chamber president, wishes to thank Gerow Schoonmaker for the use of his grounds and for the picnic and all of the other committee consisting of George W. Crist, Jesse McHugh, Walter Smith and George W. Parlinman, who so ably responded to make it such a great success.

End of Democracy
Bread Loaf, Vt., Aug. 29 (AP)—Owen Lattimore says that "the bulldozing and bullying of the American writer and reader make it impossible for citizens to make decisions of a democracy in free debate." Lattimore, controversial figure in the recent Senate investigation of communism in the State Department, said "it will be the end of our democracy if we ever let the independent writer be terrorized." He spoke last night at the 25th annual Bread Loaf conference of authors, publishers, writers and newspapermen. He charged that "fanatical groups are trying to enforce a 'new standard of debate—debate by accusation and vilification.' A Senate investigating committee recently cleared Lattimore of charges by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) that he was the top Soviet agent in this country.

Hurricane Moves North
New Orleans, Aug. 29 (AP)—A small, poorly defined tropical hurricane moved slowly toward the Louisiana-Mississippi coast today from a point in the Gulf of Mexico 490 miles south-southeast of New Orleans.

Lose Formosa, War Inevitable . . .

become a vast mote to protect us as long as we hold it."

MacArthur said we can dominate Asiatic power from a chain of islands extending in an arc from the Aleutians to the Marianas. He added:

"Any predatory attack from Asia must be an amphibious effort. No amphibious force can be successful without control of the sea lanes and the air over these lanes in its avenue of advance."

"With naval and air supremacy and modern ground elements to defend bases, any major attack from continental Asia toward us or our friends of the Pacific would come to failure."

"Our line of defense is a natural one and can be maintained with a minimum of military effort and expense."

"Properly maintained (it) would be an invincible defense against aggression. If we hold this line we may have peace—lose it and war is inevitable."

MacArthur said Formosa now has a concentration of air and naval bases which is "potentially greater than any similar concentration of the Asiatic mainland between the Yellow Sea and Strait of Malacca."

He said further bases can be developed in a relatively short time and that "any enemy force utilizing those installations currently available could increase by 100 per cent the air effort which could be directed against Okinawa as compared to operations based on the mainland."

Would Affect Air Power
He said the enemy "at the same time could direct damaging air attacks with fighter type aircraft against friendly installations in the Philippines are currently beyond the range of fighters based on the mainland. Our air supremacy, at once would become doubtful."

Thus, he said, enemy use of Formosa "may either counterbalance or overshadow the strategic importance of the central and southern flank of the U. S. front line position."

"Formosa in the hands of such an hostile power could be compared to an unseinkable aircraft carrier and submarine tender ideally located to accomplish offensive strategy and at the same time checkmate defense or counter-offensive operations by friendly forces based on Okinawa and the Philippines."

In addition, the general said, the enemy could utilize Formosa as a base for short range submarines "to threaten completely sea traffic from the south and interdict all sea lanes in the western Pacific. Submarine blockade by the enemy with all its destructive ramifications would thereby become a virtual certainty."

MacArthur said President Truman's decision on June 27 to defend Formosa "lighted into flame a lamp of hope throughout Asia that was burning dimly toward extinction."

Would Endanger U. S.
He said "nothing could be more fallacious than the argument advanced by those who advocate appeasement and defeatism in the Pacific that if we defend Formosa we alienate continental Asia."

"To pursue any other course would be to turn over the fruits of our Pacific victory to a potential enemy. It would shift any future battle area five thousand miles eastward to the coasts of the American continents, our own home coast."

On Jan. 5 at a press conference, President Truman said the United States had no desire to obtain special rights or privileges or to establish military bases on Formosa. He also said the U. S. had no intention of utilizing its armed forces to interfere in the situation there at that time.

The statement was widely interpreted then as a clear-cut victory of the policy of State Secretary Dean Acheson over Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson.

"The United States Government will not provide military aid or advice to Chinese forces on Formosa," the President said.

A week later, Secretary Acheson, in a speech before a national press club luncheon, traced the western defense perimeter of the U. S.

He said it ran south through the Ryukyu Islands, which lie to the east of Formosa. The next U. S. stronghold on this perimeter said Acheson, is the Philippines. He skipped Formosa.

Beyond the Ryukyu-Philippines line Acheson said "it must be clear that no person can guarantee the other Asiatic areas against attack."

Crushed by Truck
Newark, N. J., Aug. 29 (AP)—A Queens man fell under the rear wheels of a moving van last night and died shortly afterwards at St. Barnabas Hospital. Police identified him as Anthony Pecarella of Jackson Heights, N. Y. They said he was riding in the rear of the truck as it was on its way back to New York after a moving job here. Witnesses told police he grabbed at a dangling rope but missed, and fell under the wheels.

Top Commanders Meet in Tokyo

Gen. Douglas MacArthur (right), supreme allied commander in Tokyo, greets Adm. Arthur W. Radford, commander-in-chief of the U. S. Pacific Fleet, at Haneda air base upon Radford's recent arrival in Tokyo. Today the White House said President Truman personally ordered General MacArthur to withdraw a statement on the delicate Formosa issue because it confused the American position. In that statement, MacArthur declared Formosa vital to American East Asia defense and must remain in non-Communist hands. (Defense Department Photo via radio and AP Wirephoto)

Kingston, N. Y.

Miss Ruth Martin, Poughkeepsie, Weds Julius Banyo, Jr.

Miss Ruth Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Martin of Poughkeepsie, and Julius Banyo, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Banyo of 135 First avenue, Kingston, were married Sunday, August 20, at St. Mary's Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward Farrelly, Theodore Riccoboni, organist, played traditional wedding music.

The bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white lace over satin with a marquisette picture hat. She carried a nosegay of orchids. Mrs. Alan Vogt, sister of the groom, as matron of honor, wore a ballerina-length gown of blue net over tulle with a picture hat to match, and she carried a nosegay of tallian roses. Alexander Banyo, brother of the groom, was best man.

A reception followed the ceremony, after which the couple left for a trip to Lake George. The bride is employed by the New York Telephone Company of Poughkeepsie. The groom, a veteran of 5 years of Pacific service, is employed by the Post Office Department of Poughkeepsie. The couple will live at 548 Main street, Poughkeepsie.

Director for Teens Named by Y.W.C.A.

The appointment of Miss Katherine Austin of Rutherford, N. J., as director for the teen-age program of the Kingston Y.W.C.A. was announced today by Mrs. Daniel Van Wagenen, personnel committee chairman.

Miss Austin is a 1950 graduate of Bluffton College, Bluffton, Ohio, and has had experience this summer in Inter-Racial Workshop. She will assume her position here September 5.

Miss Austin was house mother for the Freshman Class during her senior year, a member of the Social Action Committee of the Y.W.C.A., a member of the Student Christian Association, member and president of the Women's Athletic Association, member of the art club, the Gospel team, the student council and advisory cabinet, and chairman of the Homecoming committee. She is a specialist in physical education, arts and crafts and group work.

During the summer of 1948 she was receptionist at the Passaic, N. J. Y.W.C.A. and in 1949 was a clerk for the government in Washington, D. C.

Discrimination Case

Madras, India (AP)—Barring anyone from colleges on grounds of community, caste or religion violates India's constitution, a full bench of the local high court recently ruled. The case arose out of a Madras government order fixing the ratio for admission of major religious communities into government colleges. The government said this was necessary to prevent highly intellectual minority communities from standing in the way of the progress of the backward majority. The Brahmin community which forms only three per cent of Madras state's 55,500,000 people are able, because of superior intelligence, to capture most of the admissions into the colleges. The government, therefore, fixed two seats for the Brahmins out of every 14 vacancies. The Madras government is appealing to the supreme court of India against the decision.

Skin Color May Protect

Los Angeles (AP)—Human skin may be a protective device to permit man to escape his enemies, says Dr. Raymond B. Cowles of the University of California. He says sunburn is not a good explanation of darkened skins. Thickening of the skin is a much better protection from the sun, he says. But in the jungle, a black skin makes a man hard to see. That is not true in northern forests, he says.

Rationing Law Has Teeth

Tel Aviv, Israel (AP)—Housewives who buy foodstuffs from black marketeers are getting stiff sentences in Israel's anti-profiteering laws. One Tel Aviv woman was fined $700, with the alternative of three months in jail, for buying meat without ration coupons.

Rare Native Orchid Will Be Pictured In Naturalist's Talk

A special feature of the West Park Flower Show to be held at Ascension Community Hall, West Park on September 9 and 10, will be an illustrated talk by Julian Burroughs, son of John Burroughs, famous author and naturalist, on the native wild flowers of this vicinity.

He will show color slides made from color photographs he has taken over a period of many years as a wild flower expert. Among the pictures which he will show will be that of the very rare Arctostaphylos, one of our native orchids.

Mr. Burroughs searched for 17 years before finding the specimen in this picture. The talk in general will show the relationship between many of our native wild flowers and their cultivated descendants. It will be virtually the same as the lecture recently given by Mr. Burroughs at the American Museum of Natural History in New York city.

Catch Up With Hedy

Southampton, N. Y., Aug. 29 (AP)—After two days of door-knocking and telephoning, two New York city detectives got their interview yesterday with Hedy Lamarr. They wanted to ask some questions about the $250,000 in jewels she reported missing on a trip to the big city last Saturday. The 11 pieces—none of them insured—have great "sentimental value" to her, she said. One of them was a wedding present from her first husband, Austrian musician Fritz Mandl, whom she married in Vienna in 1933, when she was 15.

The early Phoenicians are credited with being the first to use soap, which was in the form of melted fat blended with ashes.

Footlighters Give Oscar Wilde Farce Tonight in Maple Hill

TELEPHONE INTERRUPTION

The following is a very modern problem: "My husband just had a television set installed and it is creating a disagreement in the family. When a friend telephones me while I'm looking at a program that is especially interesting to me must I be interrupted or can the person calling be told to call back after the program? Could this be considered rude?"

To say, "Mrs. Jones is looking at television" would seem discourteous. But to say, "Mrs. Jones is unable to come to the telephone at the moment but asks if she may call you in ten (or twenty) minutes" would be quite all right.

Wedding Invitation to Salemen

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband is a salesman who has an "expense account." And yet because of his business connections he receives unending invitations to the weddings of his customers' daughters. He feels, and I am inclined to agree, that they call for presents, but at the same time I would like to ask you if sending such presents to these completely unknown brides is an obligation. Answer: In my opinion such presents not only are unnecessary but quite uncalled for. Eating Watermelon

Dear Mrs. Post: Please tell us the correct way to eat a slice of watermelon at the dining table. What about the seeds? Answer: If a knife is supplied you eat it with a knife and fork just as you do a piece of meat. If a knife is not supplied, you break into it a mouthful at a time with the times of the fork remove the seeds—also with fork—and eat it.

Are you planning a double wedding? Mrs. Post explains the procedure for double wedding ceremony in her latest "What's New in Weddings."

Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to her, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 18, N. Y.

It's Anne Elizabeth

London, Aug. 28 (AP)—Princess Elizabeth's new baby was named Anne Elizabeth Alice Louise today. The child's father, Prince Philip, entered the names—all of which are famous in the history of England's monarchy—on her birth certificate this morning at Clarence House, the royal couple's London mansion. The two-week-old baby's proper title and name thus will be "Her Royal Highness Princess Anne Elizabeth Alice Louise of Edinburgh."

GRAY FLANNEL LEADS FIELD IN CASUAL STYLES FOR FALL

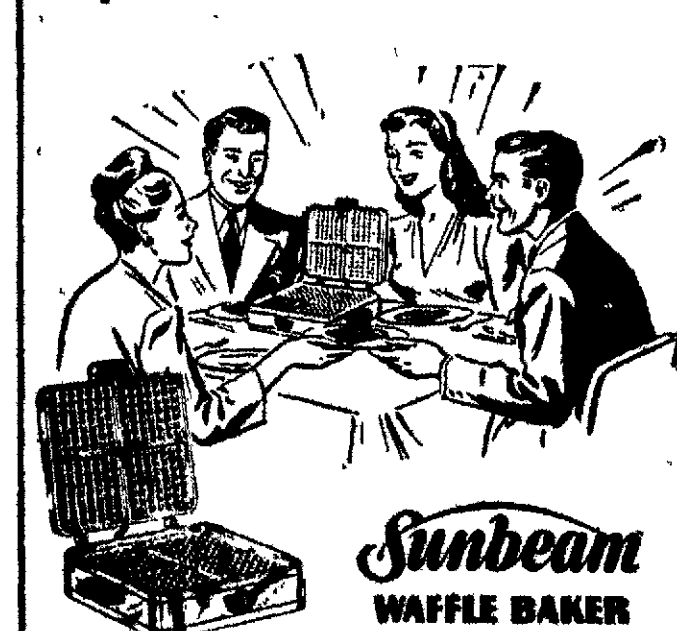

By GAIL DUGAN, NEA Staff Writer

New York — (NEA) — Gray flannel, taking top fashion honors this autumn, is seen not only in suits and dresses but in shoes, handbags and hats. It's worn all over—in the "casuals" in the country, in the city, in the small town. Beautifully tailored, it provides the basic passport to a fashionable look.

One dress which will see much casual wear in both city and country life is smoke gray menswear flannel. A full-length zipper, from hem to collar-bone, turns the matching rib-trim at the neckline into a turtle neck. The same rib-

George Calls Smart Playing 'Generosity'

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

"You're both such fine fellows that I can't make up my mind which of you I like better," said Generous George. "I'll tell you what I'll do though. I'll give you this trick and you can decide between you who deserves it more. Anything you say is all right with me."

"We're really touched," growled West. "Some day you're going to get your little trick and then you won't be able to play bridge!"

West had opened the ten of diamonds, and Generous George led it around to his queen. George led a little thinking and decided that West was undoubtedly void of clubs. It wasn't too much to expect that East had the seven missing clubs for his opening bid of three clubs. (The bid was a little shabby even so.)

In addition, West's prompt recue at three diamonds indicated extreme shortness in clubs. Finally, the fact that West had led from his king of diamonds (not an attractive lead) indicated that he didn't have even a singleton club to lead.

At the second trick, George led the jack of hearts, holding the trick. He continued hearts, and West properly held up his ace until the third round.

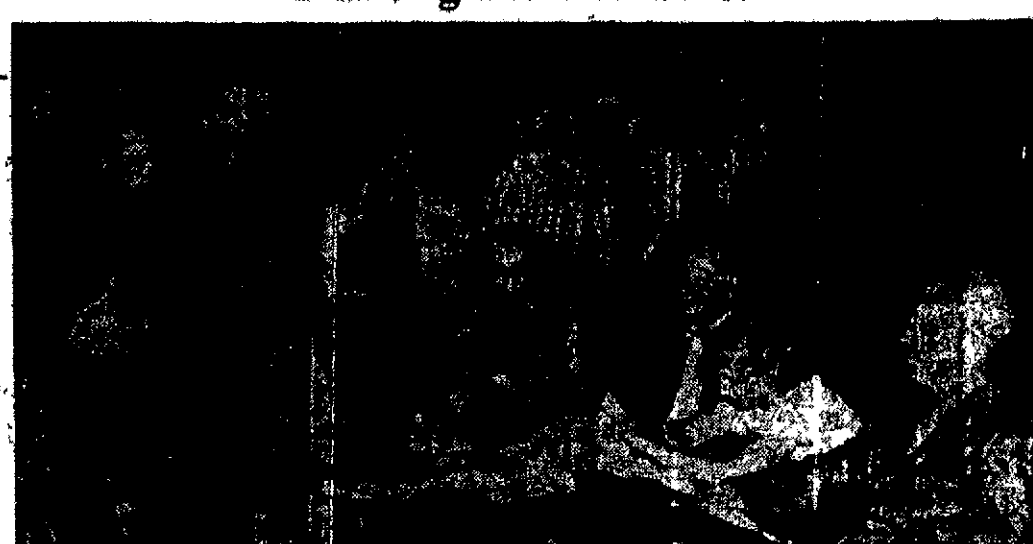

West then shifted to the four of spades, and George really outdid himself in his attempt to be generous to his opponents. When East played the ace of spades, George dropped the queen!

East tried to get out by leading the jack of spades, and George, with the king, it was at this point that George led the three of spades from his hand and made his little speech.

West dared not put up the ten of spades because, although he could cash another spade, he would then be forced to lead diamonds. Dummy would be able to win a trick with the jack of diamonds and take the hearts. West therefore played a low spade, hoping that his partner could exit safely in clubs.

East was obliged to win with the king of spades and lead diamonds. When East led the ten of clubs, George led it round to dummy's jack. Dummy could then cash the remaining hearts after which George's own hand was good for the rest of the tricks.

Planning Art Conference

Third Woodstock Art Conference committee meets at Woodstock Art Gallery to plan final details for the conference on Friday and Saturday (Sept. 1 and 2), when museum directors and artists will gather from all parts of the country to discuss their mutual problems. The public will hear prominent speakers at the final session, Saturday, at 2 p. m., at the Art Students' League summer school in Woodstock. Seated from left are Herman More, Ralph Wickiser, Sidney Laufman, William Eisner, Polly Kline and Arnold Blanch; standing, Edward Millman, Eugene Ludins, Arthur Zaidenberg, Anton Refregier and Hannah Small Ludins. Third Annual Art Conference Starts Sessions on Friday

Woodstock, Aug. 28—Francis H. Taylor, director of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, will speak at the only session of the third Woodstock Art Conference, sponsored by the Woodstock Artists Association and Artists Equity Association, which will be open to the public, at the Art Students' League Saturday, Sept. 2, at 2 p. m. with Arnold Blanch serving as chairman. Taylor will speak on "How the Museum and the Artist Can Live Together and Like It." Other speakers for the afternoon will be Edith Halpert, art dealer; Philip Evergood, painter; and Hudson D. Walker, executive director of Artists Equity Association.

The conference, which will open Friday, Sept. 1, at 10 a. m., to be attended by museum executives and artists from 15 states, will consider the mutual problems of the artist and the museum. Participating in the first session, open to all registrants, will be Sidney Laufman, chairman, with speakers Fletcher Martin, Lloyd Goodrich, of the Whitney Museum of American Art; and Yasuo Kuniyoshi, of the Museum of Modern Art. A general discussion will take place on the broad problems of what the museum can do to serve better the community, contemporary art, and the living artist, as well as what the artist can do to help the museum implement a program of such purpose.

Friday afternoon's session will consist of small panel sessions devoted to specific issues and is open to panel members only. David Smith will serve as chairman of Panel I—"Exhibitions and Juries"—with Lloyd Goodrich, co-chairman. Included in the panel are speakers: Mrs. James Chillum, Jr., Museum of Fine Arts, San Antonio, Tex.; George D. Culler, Akron, O.; Art Institute; Daniel S. Fefenbacher, Walker Art Center, Minneapolis; Joseph T. Fraser, Jr., Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Philadelphia; and Andrew White, Museum of Modern Art and Francis Henry Taylor. Artists on the first panel are Henry Billings, Arnold Blanch, Russell Cowles, Adolf Dehn, John S. deMartelly, Philip Evergood, Hans Moller, Zoltan Sepeshy and special delegate, Harold Milne, New York city art dealer.

On the second panel for Friday afternoon "Artists' Participation in Museum Activities," George L. K. Morris will be chairman with Charles Val Clear, Florida Gulf Coast Art Center, Clearwater, Fla., co-chairman. The following museum officials will assist: Amy Freeman Lee, White Memorial Museum, San Antonio, Tex.; Dorothy C. Miller, Museum of Modern Art; Mermon More, Director, Whitney Museum of American Art, New York city; Anna W. Olmsted, Syracuse Museum of Fine Arts; Perry T. Rathbone, City Art Museum of St. Louis; Jean Paul Sussner, University of Michigan Museum; Harry B. Wehl, and Justus Bier, University of Louisville, Ky. Artists on the same panel are Paul Burlin, Mary Callery, Minna Citron, Ernst Halberstadt, Yasuo Kuniyoshi, Doris Lee, Eugene Ludins, Wallace Mitchell, Abraham Rattner, Charles White, John von Noth, William Zorach, and special delegate, Edith Halpert, New York city art dealer, and Roy Neuberger, collector.

Panel III Friday afternoon is concerned with "Education and Community Relations" with Ralph Wickiser, chairman, and Bartlett Hayes, Addition Gallery of American Art, Andover, Mass., co-chairman.

On the panel of museum officials are Harvey Arnason, University of Minnesota; Rene d'Harnoncourt; Albert E. Rose, Massillon, O.; Museum; Kester D. Jewell, Worcester, Mass. Museum; Katharine Kuh, Art Institute of Chicago; Harris K. Prior, Museum of Modern Art, New York; William-Frederick Webster, Albany Institute of History and Art.

Artists on the panel will be Manuel Bromberg, Robert Cronbach, Olin Dows, Harry Gottlieb, John A. Hartell, Kyle Morris, M. Anton Refregier, Miron Schiele, Paul B. Travis, Arthur Zaidenberg, Marguerite Zorach. Special delegates will be A. L. Chanin, writer of New York city and Annette Kraushaar, New York city art dealer.

The third session Saturday at 10 a. m., open to all registrants, will be under the chairmanship of Edward Millman, at which preliminary panel reports and recom-

As Pegler Sees It

Violence, law-abiding, patriotic American citizens who detest the Guild and all it stands for.

To be sure, the danger on the picket line was purely fictitious and a pretext put forth without the slightest intention that the mechanics should believe they might be hurt, much less killed. But in order to avail themselves of the excuse, the mechanical unions had to pretend to fear injury or death to their members and the guild had to subscribe to the same fiction. A strike paper calling itself Printing Trades News, published by an illusory union committee, ran a box which said: "Picket Lines Are Dangerous. Mr. Taft and Mr. Hartley cannot force a union man to 'endanger his life and limbs' crossing a mass picket line."

An efficient and conscientious district attorney, in the face of these conditions, would have been justified in taking the initiative to put the Guild under bond to keep the peace, with warning to its officers of criminal responsibility for rioting, injury or homicide. The captain of the police precinct in a normal American city would need no political sanction to keep the entrances open and look up or, if necessary, beat up rioters. In the end, both District Attorney Hogan and Police Commissioner O'Brien submitted to a challenge to their authority. Hogan had plenty of law to take care of people threatening law-abiding citizens with bodily harm. O'Brien, with his 19,000 cops, had no excuse to ignore a situation that might lead to felonies.

With the guilty connivance of some publishers who were not above doing a little apologetics with union bosses to keep out of trouble, the Printers' Union has enjoyed an undeserved reputation for goodness and unswerving loyalty to the letter and spirit of all its contracts. Actually, it is just a typical A. F. of L. monopoly union and no better than some of the worst in certain respects. For years it has been quietly notorious for a requirement in its oath of allegiance which compels the neophyte to swear that "my fidelity to my union shall in no sense be interfered with by any allegiance that I may now or hereafter owe to any other organization, social, political or religious, secret or otherwise."

To this the new member must pledge his "most sacred honor," thus placing the union above his church, if any, and his citizenship in that other organization known as the United States. It is true that the oath is said to apply only to matters pertaining to the printing industry, but that limitation still leaves the union superior to God and country in the field of the member's lifelong occupation and principal lifelong concern.

To Plan Fair
Woodstock, Aug. 28—The final meeting of all committees for the annual church fair of St. John's parish will take place at the rectory in Stony Hollow on Wednesday at 9 p. m. All members of the parish have been invited to attend.

To Plan Defense
Hartford, Conn., Aug. 28 (AP)—The Connecticut General Assembly will meet in special session next week to strengthen the state's defenses against possible atom bomb attack and sabotage.

EAT WELL for Less

Here's a Protein-Packed Meal

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Look, budgeteers, here's another good one! Big round onions (lots of them in the markets now) stuffed with a savory mixture that carries a load of low cost protein. The meat protein in this recipe is extended by the equally good oats and cheese.

Stuffed Onions (Makes 6 Servings)

Six large onions, 1 pound ground beef, 1/2 cup catsup, 1/2 cup water, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 cup quick rolled oats, uncooked, grated sharp cheese, bread crumbs.

Cook the onions in salted water 20 minutes. Brown ground beef in frying pan. Add catsup, water, salt, pepper and rolled oats. Gently push center out of each onion. Place shells in muffin cups or custard cups. Chop enough of the cooked onion (centers) to make 1/2 cup. Mix with the meat. Fill onion shells with meat mixture. Sprinkle top of each onion with grated cheese and bread crumbs. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 25 to 30 minutes.

Here is a new twist to croquettes. The rolled oats extend the meat protein, putting this recipe in the economy group.

Meat Croquettes (Makes 6 servings)

One cup quick rolled oats, uncooked, 1 1/2 cups boiling water, 1 pound ground beef, 2 tablespoons Wilmington, Del., Aug. 28 (AP)—A New York man filed a civil action in U. S. District Court yesterday charging Canada Dry Ginger Ale, Inc., with infringing on two patents he owns. Oscar L. Engstrom claims that Canada Dry "without license or permission" infringing on one patent dated November 2, 1948 for liquid mixing and dispensing apparatus and another dated March 6, 1949 for liquid measuring dispenser.

The Eskimo Boy
You'd almost imagine that our Cluot Club Sparkling Water is 50% Northern Lights! It sparkles like an Arctic night... and it stays lively longer in the glass. Ice-cold carbonation does it. The colder a liquid is, the more bubbles you can put into it. At Cluot Club we cool all our beverages until they're just above freezing. Then we strain them shock-full of sparkle.

That's why all Cluot Club refreshments stay lively longer. Not only Sparkling Water, but our famous flavor-aged Ginger Ale.

Cluot Club full quarts give you 22 ounces instead of the 20 you get in some so-called "big" bottles.

deliciously yours,

Will Hold Talks

London, Aug. 25 (AP)—Cabinet talks prior to the coming conference will begin in the United States in the next few days. Diplomatic officials today reported that two subjects certain to figure high on the agenda of the American, British, and French ministers will be: 1. West Germany's role in the defense plans of the 12 Atlantic Pact partners. 2. The future status of Formosa. The diplomatic chiefs are to meet in New York September 12.

Building Rail Link

Hong Kong, Aug. 25 (AP)—The Chinese Communists today were reported rushing construction of a railway line that will link Moscow-trained Ho Chi Minh's Viet-nam regime with Indochina with China's rail network. The Chinese Reds also have been reported building a highway to the north-eastern border of Indochina where territory held by Ho's rebels joins Red China. Importance of a railway line from Red China to Indochina cannot be underestimated.

Screen Coal in School

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 25 (AP)—Workers carefully screened coal in two public school basements today for explosives. The move was made after 12 sticks of dynamite and detonating caps were found in a railroad carload of coal consigned to the two schools. Some fuel had been placed in the schools before the explosives were found. Police said they did not know how the dynamite got in the car.

Catty Store

New York, Aug. 25 (AP)—It was a dark room, and 80 yellow eyes glared at John Stitzel, Stitzel, an agent for the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, had been summoned to investigate the strange noises that came from a vacant Brooklyn store. Police said an elderly couple who had rented the store for living quarters apparently had collected 40 cats and abandoned them when they moved out.

Joins Labor Party

London, Aug. 25 (AP)—The British Communist Party today sought to repair its political fortunes by joining the Labor Party. It announced it would reduce sharply in the next general election the number of Red candidates and support Laborites in other constituencies.

Fire in Own Truck

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 25 (AP)—A hook and ladder company found itself literally on top of a fire. The firemen were returning from a false alarm when smoke began pouring from under the hood of their truck. They put out the small fire quickly with hand extinguishers.

Minor Scattered Damage in Area

Rain and lightning Monday afternoon and evening caused some minor scattered damage in this area.

Electric power was interrupted for 44 minutes last night in the Albany avenue and Richmond Park sections of Kingston when several wires were down, the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation reported.

One result of the power interruption was that Kingston's radio station, WKNY, was forced to remain off the air for a period when the power for its transmitter was cut off.

Other scattered power interruptions and other wire difficulties were reported by the Central Hudson in Glasco, East Kingston, Tilton areas, and on Chapel street in Kingston.

Anthony Allica reported a lightning bolt struck the television antenna at St. Mary's Benevolent Society, 200 North street, about 7 p. m. Monday, putting the television set out of commission, damaging some wires and blowing a fuse. Several persons, in the building at the time were not reported injured.

State police at Lake Katrine reported the heavy rains caused a landslide which blocked one lane of Route 9W about one-half mile north of the troopers' barracks. State highway department men were notified and removed the dirt from the roadway.

New York Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity officials reported a rainfall totaling 1.58 inches at Brown Station, Ashokan Reservoir, in the 24-hour period ended 8 a. m. today. Other rainfall readings reported by that department were these: Lake Hill, 0.63 inches; Cold Brook, 0.82; Phoenixia, 0.82; and Slide Mountain, 0.45 inches.

Kicking Out Reds
Rome, Aug. 29 (AP)—An anti-Communist coalition ticket headed by Premier Alcide De Gasperi's Christian Democrat Party defeated a Communist-Socialist coalition in municipal elections at Fermo, a town of 4,000 in north central Italy yesterday. Christian Democrat headquarters said the victory marked the 101st municipality wrested from Communist control since the April 1948 elections.

Pickets Walk at Merriman Dam at Lackawack

Pickets were reported walking along both ends of the Merriman Dam at Lackawack yesterday. The dam, which is part of New York city's water system in this region, has been under construction for nearly a decade. Work was delayed during the wartime years and at other times, since it first started. The pickets are from the International Bridge Structural Iron Workers Local 417, Newburgh, B.W.S. police said. The S. A. Healey Construction Co., is the contractor. (Freeman Photo)

Lewis Declares

Green:
"From John L. Lewis:
"You know, Bill, that I am ever distressed when I have to disturb the calm placidity of your ordered existence. But I suggest that the rights of American workers in industry should not be bartered to appease your innate craving for orthodox respectability. Consideration of the following items is therefore indicated:
1. Although the Mine Workers have exposed labor unity, you have stipulated them out of the unity conferences. It follows that any mess that you cook up with the C.I.O., if you can cook up any mess with the C.I.O., will of course have to be eaten by you, and you alone. We do our own cooking.
2. You have stipulated the Mine Workers out of representation on the select, star chamber labor committee which you designated to please Symington. (W. Stuart Symington, chairman of National Security Resources Board). We gently advise that we will not be bound by your deliberations or commitments conducted or made in our absence. We do our own cooking.
3. The press chronicles you as plodding about the country seeking someone to whom you can give a 'no strike pledge'. I am sure that you will pardon me when I suggest that the mine workers are not yet ready for you to sell them down the river. Restrict your pledges to your own outfit. We do our own cooking."
The mine workers were invited to meetings of union and industry leaders called by Symington, but Lewis was left off when Symington named a 12-man National Policy Board which included three labor representatives.

On that board are Green, C.I.O. President Philip Murray and Al J. Hayes, president of the International Association of Machinists, an independent union.
The coal miners signed a two-year contract last March 5, but contains a provision that either side may reopen the agreement next April 1.
Discuss State Guard
New York, Aug. 29 (AP)—A legislative committee is preparing a bill authorizing the governor to send the New York State Guard outside the state under certain circumstances. It was reported yesterday. The report came as the joint legislative committee to study military law and civilian defense held a hearing here. No statement was issued on the legislation discussed.

Sell Bogus Passports
Palermo, Sicily, Aug. 29 (AP)—Police reported today they had arrested a 17-member gang which sold false passports with fake visas and valid airline or steamship tickets to Sicilians eager to emigrate abroad. The passport, visa and ticket were sold for 500,000 lire (about $800), police reported.

Rebels Increase
Saigon, Indochina, Aug. 29 (AP)—French troops, operating with loyal Vietnamese against the Moscow-supported guerrilla regime of Ho Chi Minh, today regained the southeast coastal area. However, rebel pressure was said to be increasing in the smaller states of Laos and Cambodia.

Ready to Fight U. S.
Moscow, Aug. 29 (AP)—The Peiping correspondent for the Soviet newspaper Pravda reported today that the Chinese people are ready to defend their country against the United States. The correspondent, J. L. Vysskov, said this in repeating Communist China's charges that American planes had attacked Chinese territory.

Births
The city registrar recently recorded the following births:
Aug. 19—Gertrude Marie to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thomas Hendricks, St. Rem.
Aug. 21—John Alfred to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Cronan, Mt. Tremper.
Aug. 22—Deborah Jean to Mr. and Mrs. Frank John Stanley, 159 Hunter street.
Aug. 23—Paul Sloan to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sloan Rowland, Jr., 11 Irving Place, Vincent.
Aug. 24—Boulevard and Rosemarie to Mr. and Mrs. William Edward DeCicco, 25 Janzen avenue.

Successful Horse Show at Walkkill

One of the most successful horse shows ever to be held in southern Ulster county was held Sunday at Sunny Croft Ranch, Walkkill, under auspices of the American Horse Shows Association, Inc. There were over 700 in attendance at the show which was held for the benefit of the Reformed Church of Shawangunk. The show was sponsored by the Sunny Croft Horse Show group of which Adrian Worth is president. Maury Worth is vice president; Mrs. Carl Muller, secretary; Mrs. Adrian Worth, treasurer; and J. T. Bragg, manager.

The success of the show this year has prompted the management to already consider a bigger show next year.
Judges at the show were J. Wilson, Mrs. A. G. Budelman, A. Schuyler Wilson, Mrs. J. S. Huyler, G. Budelman, Carl Muller and Eric A. Attenbury. The announcer was Jack Ahern of Woodstock.
The show opened at 9 a. m. and continued throughout the day. Exhibitors who were awarded handsome trophies and ribbons included horsemen from Paterson, New York city; Scarsdale, Newburgh, Rhinebeck, Huntington, Saugerties, Phoenixia, Hoboken, Mamaroneck, Walkkill, Monticello, N. J., Cornwall, Goshen, Little Neck, Great Neck, South Orange and many other places in New York and New Jersey. This was the first time that the southern Ulster show was held under auspices of the American Horse Shows Association, Inc., and many of the finest horses in this area were shown.

Highway Aid Bill
Washington, Aug. 29 (AP)—The House today passed a federal highway aid bill calling for an outlay of $1,188,000,000 for roads in the two years beginning July 1, 1951. It accepted a measure worked out by a Senate-House Conference Committee after the two chambers passed varying bills. The Senate has not yet acted on the compromise. The measure does not put up any money but authorizes $450,000,000 for the primary highway system, $300,000,000 for the secondary highway system, $250,000,000 for the urban system and smaller amounts for roads and trails in parks and Indian reservations.

Malik Will Use

posed the U. S. resolution to localize the Korean war and simultaneously has charged the U. S. with aggression in Korea.

Although the U. S. was not expected to oppose Malik's attempt to bring Formosa into his propaganda blasts, other council members were reported ready to combat putting this on the order of business. They insist on clearing up the Korean question which Malik has blockaded.

The Chinese Communists have complained to the U. N. that the U. S. Seventh Fleet, acting under orders of President Truman to protect the approaches to Formosa, is intervening in China.

They claim Formosa is territorially a part of Communist China.

Malik has made no reference, however, to a new complaint by Red China's Foreign Minister Chou En-lai that U. S. planes have bombed Chinese mainland areas. Nor has he referred to news accounts of Chinese Communist charges that British warships have violated Chinese territorial waters near Hong Kong.

Schools Open Next

requirement will be made. Because there is no kindergarten in School No. 1 it is urged that children of kindergarten age living in this area register in a kindergarten in either School No. 2 or School No. 8.

Children entering public schools for the first time are required to present a legal record showing date of birth. This legal record may either be (1) birth certificate, (2) baptismal certificate, (3) Bible record, (4) a sworn affidavit, or (5) immigration papers. These records are returned to the parent.

During the first week of school the kindergarten teachers will have a conference with a parent of each child. This is done in order that the teacher may learn as much as possible about the child and thus make it easier for the teacher to understand the child and for the teacher to help the child become adjusted to kindergarten. These conferences will be held both morning and afternoon on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 5, 6, 7 and 8. Regular sessions of kindergartens will start on Monday, September 11.

Parents of first grade children are urged to arrange for a conference with the first grade teacher. These conferences will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons, September 5, 6, 7, and 8.

Cafeterias will be operated in all public schools. Parents are urged to have children take advantage of the splendid meals which are served to the children. Meals will start being served on Wednesday, September 6.

This year all 7th and 8th grade children will attend the Myron J. Michael School. Students attending M.J.M. school shall report in the school auditorium at 8:30 a. m. on Tuesday, September 5. M.J.M. students will be dismissed at 12 o'clock noon on Tuesday. Buses for non-residents have been requested to schedule the return trip at 12 o'clock. It will be unnecessary for students who last June were promoted from sixth or seventh grades to seventh or eighth grades to register prior to the opening day because this registration was completed in June.

It will also be unnecessary for non-resident students who were interviewed last Spring in the rural school by a member of the Kingston Guidance Department to register prior to the opening day of school. These registrations have all been completed. However, the M.J.M. office will be open from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, August 30 and 31 and September 1 for the registration of any new 7th and 8th grade pupils in the city and/or for any seventh and eighth grade non-residents who have not previously registered.

The Kingston High School will open on Tuesday, September 5, at 8:30 a. m. The Guidance Office is open every day from 8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. Students wishing to change their courses or to discuss their program with members of the guidance department should arrange to do this prior to the opening of school. No student schedules will be changed after school opens on September 5. Students attending KHS should watch the daily papers for further announcements regarding the opening of school.

Plan Auxiliary of Legion for Town Of Ulster Post

Plans to organize a unit of the American Legion Auxiliary for the Town of Ulster Post No. 1740 were announced today by Mrs. Christine Cole, unit president.

A membership campaign will be conducted to enlist those who are eligible—wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of members of the Legion, or of men who died in war service and veterans who died since discharge. Women who served in the armed forces in either world war are eligible to both Legion and Auxiliary membership.

In stressing the importance of membership, Mrs. Cole said, "This is a critical time in the affairs of veterans, as well as of the nation, and the Auxiliary is working for the welfare of both. Every woman who joins gives us added strength for service to veterans, and for our work in support of national security and Americanism."

An organizational meeting will be held Thursday, August 31, at Tall Cedar Cabins, Lake Katrine, at 8:30 p. m. Women accepted for membership will become charter members of the unit.

Money Troubles

New Bedford, Mass., Aug. 29 (AP)—David Lumbashy becomes the legal owner today of $20,000 he found a year ago—but, he says, "It's driving me crazy. Half the people in the country are trying to claim the dough," he said. "And the other half want to help me spend it. I haven't slept for four days. I'd be better off if I'd never found the stuff." Lumbashy, a former manager of boxers, found the money on a roadside last August 29. No one has established a legal claim to it. He becomes the owner today under state law.
